

Fern Fleischer Daves is Assistant General Counsel at ITT Corporation headquartered in White Plains, New York, where she provides advice and counsel on regulatory compliance, litigation, corporate transactions, product stewardship, environmental remediation, and real estate.

From 1992- 2000, Fern served as in-house counsel to Asarco Incorporated. Previously, she was in private practice at two different law firms in New Jersey specializing in litigation and environmental matters.

Fern is the current Chair of the Corporate Environmental Enforcement Council, and serves on the boards of directors of Thermostat Recycling Corporation and the Urban Art Projects . She has previously served in leadership positions in the ABA Section on Environment, Energy and Resources, and the Auditing Roundtable New York Region. Fern has published articles and lectured on a variety of environmental, safety and health, and product stewardship topics.

Fern was educated in Washington, D.C. at Georgetown University Law Center (J.D. 1989), and American University (M.S. in Justice 1986; B.A. in Law and Society, 1985).

Bar admissions: New York (registered in-house counsel), New Jersey (active), and Pennsylvania (inactive).