

Carrie Calvert, Director of Tax and Commodity Policy, Feeding America

Carrie is a member of the public policy team in the DC office and leads the policy team's work on food waste, tax issues and nonprofit governance, including federal incentives for food and fund donations. Carrie has been with Feeding America since 2004. Prior to joining Feeding America, she worked for seven years at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld in their Public Law and Policy Section. At Akin Gump, Carrie was active in transportation, appropriations and tax policy and legislative issues on behalf of a variety of clients. In addition, Carrie also represented the interests of several pro bono clients, including America's Second Harvest. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in political science from George Washington University.